November ART Challenge

Do you have a pet or know some one who does? A fun way to capture the personalities, characteristics, and beauty of animals is through the arts. Sculpt, photograph, draw, paint, etc, using different styles. This is a great way to honor your pet and the special bond you or someone else has for them. No matter what approach you choose this can be a rewarding and enjoyable experience that allows you to showcase a pet. So take on the challenge of pet art! Please post your artistic ideas and completed artwork on our Facebook page. And tag #parrishartscouncil on Instagram. Express and share your creativity. We are looking forward to seeing what everyone shares. For more information, check out the Call to Artist link on our website parrishartscouncil.org. If you have an idea for a future challenge, contact us, getinvolved@parrishartscouncil.org.

ArtConversations! - November 21st from 6pm - 8pm

Member benefit! This is our monthly gathering where artists can work on their artwork and/ or share ideas. Members can bring a guest. Art Conversations will be held at The Parrish United Methodist Church (next to the old chapel).

We will be creating Artist Trading Cards this month. Check our website for more information - parrishartscouncil.org

Youth Holiday Workshop

What a wonderful time we had with the Youth Workshop. The kids had a choice of polymer clay and/or acrylics. We had examples for inspiration to help them decide what to do. For the acrylics they drew what they wanted and then painted it. The clay gave them a workout preparing it, but it was all worth it when they got to roll it out and use cookie cutters to create a shape. They also learned how to create add-ons to decorate the shapes with details.

Exhibitions

Youth Holiday Exhibition -

November 4th - January 6, 2024.

The youth artwork will be from our October 7th Free Youth Workshop, teaching students how to use polymer clay and acrylics. The group made Fall/ Winter ornaments and paintings using these mediums. Stop by to see their creations.

Thank you to the Rocky Bluff Library for hosting.

Fall Paint Around

A big thank you to watercolor artists Diane Simon, Nancy White, Karalee Hammes, Sue Lynn Cotton, and Gwen Kodad for volunteering their time and supplies, making this a very successful Paint Around event.

We'd also like to thank all our volunteers. We could not do this fundraiser without you.

This year Tara Elementary was the recipient of $350 for their art department and their art teacher, Kevin Olson.

Kevin was in attendance and talked throughout the event about the art and the needs for his department. The funds will be used towards technology for their digital art program. This program is helping prepare students for potential career paths in the arts as technology increases.

Our VP, Michelle Polito, went to the school to present Kevin with the check.

Artist Tip of the Day

There are two ways to think about our inner critic as artists. One is that it's good to do your own critiquing even if it's negative. That may be ok unless it makes you feel discouraged. If this has happened to you, try to look at your work from a learning perspective. You might even think of what you would say to a dear friend about the areas of their work that could be improved. Creating art should be fun so if you're feeling low get rid of that inner critic. Add your own tips on our Facebook Page. If you have any subjects you'd like to get tips on, ask us on Facebook or email us at getinvolved@parrishartscouncil.org
